

WELCOME TO JESTER'S HAND KITTENS

CORE RULES

 Jester's Table is not a dating space.

Sexual content, explicit messages, or attempts to pursue romantic or sexual relationships within Jester's Table are not allowed. Please take that elsewhere or to your personal Whispers.

 Sexual or explicit content directed toward members without their consent is not allowed.

Personal Whispers are private conversations between members. However, if a member reports unwanted sexual, explicit, harassing, or inappropriate behavior within Whispers, the report will be reviewed fairly and may result in the revocation of a Joker ID and removal from The Hand.

♥ Discussion of explicit material within the books is permitted.

♥ Fictional characters are not protected. Language toward characters is allowed.

 Members are protected. Slurs or derogatory language toward people are not allowed.

 Real-world partisan politics and divisive social issues are not permitted within Jester's Hand.

This includes, but is not limited to, elections, political parties, politicians, current political figures, political campaigns, gun control, abortion, culture-war topics, and other real-world political or ideological debates.

These topics are not permitted within Jester's Table, The Ante, polls, debates, personal polls, discussion channels, or any other area of Jester's Hand.

Please take those discussions elsewhere.

♥ Political dynamics, power structures, moral conflicts, and themes that exist within The Jokers may be discussed.

♥ Cussing — filtered or unfiltered — is welcome. We are all adults.

 No bullying.

♥ Friendly banter is allowed.

 If your personal Whispers are reported, there will be a fair investigation and it may result in removal from The Hand.

THE HAND

♠ Activity is evaluated based on a Joker's overall and continuing participation within Jester's Hand and the Exclusive 54 community rather than any single action or feature.

🔪 Login activity may be considered when reviewing overall activity; however, logging into Jester's Hand without otherwise participating does not, by itself, constitute active participation.

♥ Periods of reduced activity will not automatically result in the loss of a Joker ID. Continued inactivity across Jester's Hand may result in review, Suspension, or Transfer in accordance with the terms of The Hand.

🔪 A seat within the 54 is intended to remain active. Jokers are not required to play every card in The Hand, but they are required to remain in play.
